

CHRIS KOPROWSKI

U.S. MALE VOICE

VOICE ACTOR/NARRATOR

Cell: 090-5804-2454

www.chriskoprowski.com

Language: American English

Japanese ability: intermediate

Education: B.A. in Philosophy/Psychology, University of Minnesota-Duluth

BIO:

Chris is a Tokyo-based professional voice-actor/narrator. Raised in Duluth, Minnesota he was active on stage (musicals, school plays, community theater) along with school and church chorus (and a barbershop quartet). After graduating from the University of Minnesota, Duluth with majors in philosophy and psychology, he travelled to Tokyo in 1993 and taught English for several years. He soon began narrating textbooks and exams for English education publishers. With further professional VO training and 20+ years of experience, he now does voiceover and narration full-time for a variety of clients. He holds Permanent Residency in Japan.

Notable voice projects and clients:

- Television/Radio/Web commercials for Anytime Fitness, SUBARU, UNIQLO, NTT Group, Starbucks, Mitsui & Co., Omron, Toshiba, Toyota (Lexus), Sumitomo Chemical, Panasonic, Honda Power Products, Fourteen Golf, Sekisui House
- Corporate narration for CAPCOM, SONY, Canon, Yahoo Japan, Panasonic, Dentsu, FujiFilm, Fuji Heavy Industries, Clarion, Hitachi, Honda, KAO, Mitsubishi, NTT DoCoMo, NEC
- Audio guides for the National Museum of Modern Art (Tokyo), Suntory Museum of Art, Mori Art Museum, Mitsui Museum, Nara National Museum
- NHK World documentaries, TV programs, and English education radio programs
- News narration for The Japan Times
- IR webcast reports for AEON, Mitsui, ANA, JAL, SkyPerfect JSAT Corporation
- TOEIC/TOEFL/EIKEN test & textbook narration for ALC Press, Cengage Learning, Goken, Kinseido, Lint, Obunsha, Seibido

- Video game voices for Konami, SEGA, Spike, Square Enix, Taito